WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU ARE A VICTIM OF DIGITAL VIOLENCE?

The person can register an FIR by contacting the nearest police station/cyber cell/ National Commission for Women. Women are able to file an FIR for any crime, that individual can still contact the judicial magistrate or executive magistrate in her city.

Most social media platforms that allow users to create accounts include a reporting feature. Under the IT (Intermediary Guidelines) Rules, 2011, these websites must respond within 36 hours to remove infringing content.

Under the Information Technology Amendment Act of 2008, the Indian Computer Emergency Response Team (CERT-IN) has been established as the national regulatory authority for dealing with computer safety concerns. They give guidance on cyber incident protocol, protection, reporting, and reaction, among other things.

16 DAYS AWARENESS CAMPAIGN

The Centre for International Legal Studies in collaboration with the Centre of Gender Justice and Law of CMR SOLS organized a unique 16-day campaign to raise awareness amongst women residing near the college campus. An inaugural event for the commencement of 16-day campaign in commemoration of the elimination of violence against women was held on the 25th of November, 2021.

The campaign's intervening 16-day period was referred to as 16 Days Of Activism, wherein student volunteers in coordination with the research centers undertook the campaign which sought to create awareness amongst women in the localities surrounding the college campus near Banaswadi East, Bangalore.

The awareness campaign witnessed volunteers from both centers distribute flyers and other materials, consisting of information related to the various forms of violence perpetrated against women and the legal remedies available to the victims of such violence. The student volunteers were also involved in conducting a research survey as a part of this Awareness Campaign, which was undertaken to study not only instances and causes of violence amongst the targeted women but also aimed to analyze the levels of awareness amongst these women regarding the various offences committed against them and the legal recourse available to them in case of commission of such offences. The 16-Day Awareness Campaign was partook during the working hours of college, wherein the volunteers took out their valuable time for their collective mission.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

This webinar was organized as a part of the Valedictory ceremony of the 16-Day Awareness Campaign. Based on the theme of 'Orange the World: End Violence against Women Now', the event was honored by the presence of Ms. Nazma Farooqi, ACP Bangalore City Police. The event witnessed a deliberation on the data collected in the research survey conducted as a part of the 16-Day campaign to understand the views and perspectives of women. The event interestingly also marked the World Human Rights Day and student volunteers presented a short play demonstrating the violence that is committed against women in different forms.
